Message from the President

Distinguished Alumni and Friends:

WELCOME, on behalf of the College family to Homecoming 2000. This is our 33rd annual Alumni Reunion, and the first of the new century. This makes this year's homecoming very special. We congratulate the National Alumni Association for celebrating with the College in planning a weekend of events which promise to be informative, innovative, and inspirational.

We have some very exciting plans and programs under way. Our strategic goals still focus on spiritual vitality, academic excellence, fiscal responsibility, resource development, and technological advance. Immediate attention is geared towards preparation for the next site visit of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools which is expected to result in re-affirmation of accreditation. Ultimately, this will place the College in excellent position for university status by 2003.

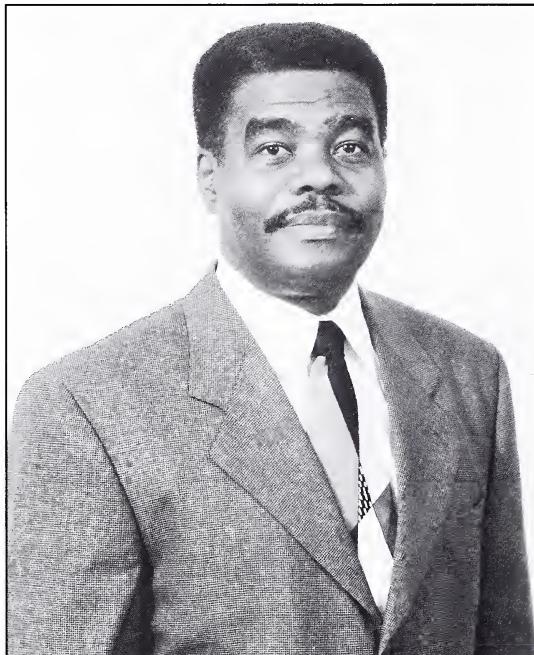

We hope that your visit will include time to visit the campus so that you will observe our progress. Adventist Boulevard is completed, providing easy access to new entrances to the campus; the Business and Technology Complex is under construction, and campus beautification initiatives are ongoing. Also, if you haven't already visited our Slave Cemetery located on the Southern part of our campus, please do so. You will find it to be a very moving and inspiring spot.

With your support and commitment to the high ideals of CHRISTLIKENESS for our youth, our students will be provided quality instruction and guidance to achieve the lasting goals of Education, Excellence, Eternity.

Very sincerely,

Delbert W. Baker, Ph.D.
President

Friday Vesper Speaker

Anthony A. Medley Sr.

Whether you call him "Pastor," "Dean," "Vice President," "Youth Director," "Certified Counselor" or still even "Chaplain," Anthony A. Medley will respond humbly because God and Oakwood College have qualified him for each of these overlapping titles and responsibilities.

Since January 1999 Medley has served Oakwood as its Vice President for Student Services. In this stewardship, he oversees Counseling and Testing, Enrollment Management/Admission/International Students, Food Services, Health Services, Residence Halls, Spiritual Life/Chaplain, Student Activities, Task Force, United Student Movement, and Work Education/Career Services. For these responsibilities, Northeastern Conference trained him quite well.

A Poughkeepsie, NY native, Anthony received his bachelor's degree in theology in 1984 from Oakwood College; in 1986, he received both his Master's of Divinity degree from Andrews University Seminary as well as his certification as a pre-marriage counselor.

As a pastor, in the Northeastern Conference, he has shepherded congregations in Troy, Albany, Westbury, Queens and Harlem, NY; as a chaplain, he has served both Nyack Hospital (NY), and more recently Oakwood College. In addition to his pastoral experience, Anthony served as director of Youth Ministries, director of Camp Victory Lake and a member of the conference executive committee and Northeastern Academy School Board. July of 1996, he returned here to his alma mater, by then-President Dr. Benjamin Reeves as College Chaplain; and as a "youth man" Medley—again, choose your own title!—he initiated the National Youth (worship) Service for our annual Alumni Homecoming Weekends, under the former alumni president Mrs. Clora Jones.

Mrs. India (Pinkney) Medley is currently in the Vanderbilt University Master's of Science in Nursing program, and becoming a nursing practitioner in pediatrics. Lovingly, Anthony and India are parents to 11-year old daughter Mylon and 8-year old Anthony, II.

Divine Worship Speaker

Benjamin F. Reaves, D.Min.

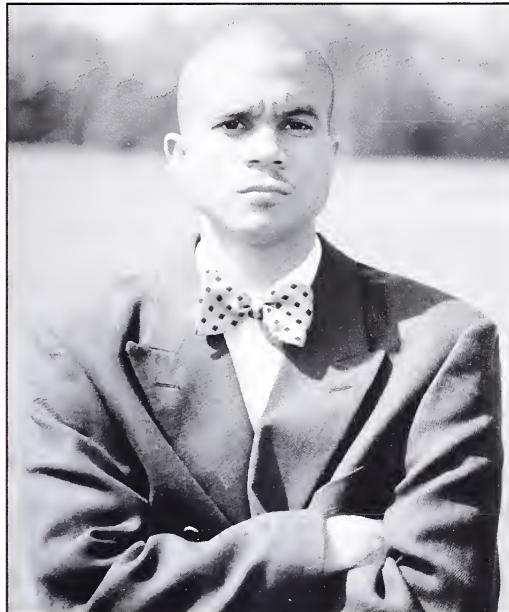

Benjamin F. Reaves, D.Min. serves as vice president of ministries for Adventist Health System, responsible for increasing the spiritual impact and fulfilling the mission of the largest Adventist health-care system in the nation.

Reaves previously served as general field secretary for the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Prior to that, Reaves served as president of Oakwood College in Huntsville, Alabama for 11 years. He also formerly served as chairman of the Department of Religion and Theology at Oakwood

College and professor of religion at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary and Andrews University.

Reaves is an ordained minister in the Seventh-day Adventist Church and holds a doctorate of ministry in church and society from Chicago Theological Seminary, a masters of art in church history and master of divinity in practical theology from Andrews University, and a bachelor of arts in Theology from Oakwood College.

Youth Divine Worship Speaker

Pastor Furman F. Fordham, II

Furman F. Fordham, II, son of Walter and Shirley Fordham, was born in Kansas City, MO. He graduated from Pine Forge Academy ('89), and after serving as USM President, a student missionary in Australia, and Senior Class President, he graduated from Oakwood College ('95) with a B.A. in Theology and a B.S. in Business Management. He completed his M.Div at Andrews University while serving as an Associate Pastor at Straford Memorial in Chicago, IL.

As a pastor in the Central States Conference he has pastored two three-church districts—currently pastoring in Charleston, Hayti and Sikeston, MO. He is married to the former Jennifer Gill (OC '96), and they have an eleven month old son, Furman Fletcher Fordham, III, nicknamed "PACE."

2000 Parents of the Year

Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace Cox, Sr.

James Wallace Cox, Sr., a native of New Orleans, Louisiana, and the former Mable Mattilda Hubbard, formerly of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, heeded the word of the three angel's message by becoming a part of God's last day remnant church over 50 years ago. As faithful members of the Seventh-day Adventist church, they not only dedicated themselves to the service of the church, but as loving parents earnestly reared their three children in the admonition of the Lord. They have also been instrumental in encouraging their nine grandchildren and many "adopted" children to hold steadfast in the Lord and to pursue their dreams.

James' first contact with Adventism took place while serving his country in World War II. While overseas in the Philippines, he met a young man by the name of Harold Hollingsworth who carried himself in such a Christ-like manner that he stood out among his peers. When James arrived back to his hometown, his brother Aubrey invited him to a tent meeting and he was surprised to be greeted by Brother Hollingsworth. He was baptized into the New Orleans Ephesus SDA church in 1948, where he has served in many capacities, including Sabbath School superintendent and local elder. He has prompted many souls to be baptized into this marvelous truth by conducting Bible studies. He also had the privilege of helping to build the Ephesus church under the direction of Elder W.S. Lee. He currently serves as the head elder of the Caffin Avenue Seventh-day Adventist Church, in New Orleans.

Mable had the privilege of growing up in a Christian home in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Elder J. Dasent conducted a tent effort and introduced her mother, Mrs. Laura Stevens Hubbard to the Adventist message. Laura reared her eight children in the church, and was also known as a diligent worker in the local churches in Baton Rouge and New Orleans. She provided a role model for her children to follow. Mable, following in her mother's footsteps, embraced this truth and was baptized at the age of 10. She has had a life of service to both God and to the children in His vineyard. Her faithful years of service to the church include serving as church clerk, Sabbath School teacher, health and temperance leader, Agape Committee leader, and cooking class facilitator.

James and Mable were united in holy matrimony in 1951 and through that union were blessed with three sons, James Wallace Jr., William Terrell and Michael Anthony. James and Mable had an unquenchable desire to provide the best for their children. James worked many long hours as a chef at the Pontchartrain Hotel and for over 16 years was employed by Aonvalde Shipyard as a ship fitter in order that his sons could receive a Christian education. With the energy of a young man, James came out of retirement after 12 years, to become employed at the Louisiana Medical Cooperation. He continues to play a vital role in the lives of his children and grandchildren.

Mable, after having completed her nursing degree in Kansas City, Missouri began her career at Flint Goodridge hospital in New Orleans. She had to relocate to New Orleans because they were not hiring Black Registered Nurses in Baton Rouge. She later worked at Charity Hospital, and then at the U.S. Public Service Hospital where she worked in nursing administration for over 30 years, and became the first black head nurse in that institution's history. After retiring from the U.S. Public Service Hospital, she continued to work in her profession by becoming the Assistant Director of Nursing at the New Orleans Adolescent Hospital, before she retired again in 1992. After several years of retirement, she continued her zeal for helping others by becoming employed at the New Orleans Health Corporation as a health educator and home health supervisor. She is currently retired and continues to devote her life to her children, grandchildren and her church.

Until hardships and trials were met with courage as these Christian parents have made provisions for their children and grandchildren. Because of their relationship with God they realized the need for Christian education, as they reared their children. The initial training given at home by word and example paid off, for in the fall of 1970 James Jr. enrolled at Oakwood College to study for the gospel ministry. Four years later James and Mable proudly watched James Jr. receive his degree in Theology and began his ministry in the Southwest Region Conference, after attending Andrews University, in Berrien Springs, Michigan. It has been a ministry of distinction; he has pastured in Lubbock, Texas, Texarkana, Texas, and Houston, Texas and currently is the proud pastor of the Grace Temple Seventh-day Adventist church in Fort Worth, Texas. He is consistently among the leaders in baptisms in the field and is known for his preaching and administrative abilities. Pastor James Cox, Jr. is married to the former Adella Jeffers and they have 3 children, Karen, Krystal, and James III.

In 1974 William Terrell followed the new founded tradition and enrolled at Oakwood College. While his first major was pre-med, the Holy Spirit spoke to his heart and he too sought a degree in Theology. In 1979 he graduated from Oakwood with a degree in Theology and Psychology. He has continued his educational pursuits by obtaining a Master of Divinity in Psychology and Counseling and a Master of Christian Education in Social Work from the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He has had the privilege of serving in the Southwest Region Conference, the Southern California Conference and currently the Allegheny West Conference, where he is the proud pastor of the Ephesus Seventh-day Adventist church in Columbus, Ohio. Pastor William Cox is married to the former LaTanya Huffman and they have 3 children, William Jr., LaTisha, and Jamaal.

Michael Anthony, their youngest son also attended Oakwood College in 1975. He returned to Oakwood and completed an associate degree in Physical Therapy. He is currently pursuing the Master of Physical Therapy at Andrews University and is manager of a Physical Therapy clinic (on educational leave). He has been extremely active in the local church, serving as Minister of Music, Choir Director, Adventist Youth leader and mentor to young people. Michael is married to the former Michele Tatum and they have 3 children, Michèle, Michael Jr., and Miguel.

James and Mable Cox are now seeing the second generation of their offspring attend Oakwood College. In the fall of 1998 their oldest grandchild, Karen, the daughter of James and Adella enrolled at Oakwood College and is now completing the pre-requisite to enter the Physical Therapy program. In the fall of 1999, William Jr. the son of William and LaTanya enrolled at Oakwood to pursue a degree in business administration. The legacy of these Christian parents continues to grow.

If success is defined as being loving, devoted, supportive, and encouraging by both word and example, then James and Mable Cox rightly deserve the title of being successful parents. No sacrifice has been too great in order to achieve their ultimate goal, to see their family saved in the kingdom of heaven.

The New Orleans Oakwood Alumni Chapter, along with the national alumni association proudly presents James and Mable Cox as Oakwood College's parents of the year for 2000.

To Our Parents, James and Mable Cox

There are few words found in scripture that we desire to hear more than, Matthew 25:21 which says "Well done thou good and faithful servant, thou has been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter into the joy of thy Lord." These words will be shared with the redeemed of all ages when the final judgment is pronounced on the saints of God. On this your special day, your family declares that you have done a faithful job in the rearing of your children and grandchildren. You have taught us unconditional love, the spirit of forgiveness, the art of self sacrifice and have set before us an example of personalized relationships with God. For these and other blessings, your family rises up today and call you blessed. Mom and Dad, thank you for your Godly examples in all things. May God's Spirit continue to give you peace and joy.

With all our love,

William and Latanya, William Jr., Latisha and Jamaal

You have so many reasons to feel special pride today because you've worked so hard for all you have earned. You have embarked on a journey that has transformed lives into messengers for Christ. God has given you both a special task of raising up young men that are determined to follow Jesus all the way, and in their journey they have decided to carry everyone that they meet on the way with them. Today, your journey has reached a peak in your lives, but remember there are lots of God's children that are still depending on you both for guiding them into His kingdom, so please continue to let your light so shine that men may see you good work and glorify God.

Bro. & Sis. Cox, hold fast to God's promises because you ARE sure to reap your reward when He comes.

Mom & Dad.

How could we begin to say thank you for your lives of unselfish service and devotion. We are proud to say that we are your children. We are not surprised that two people such as yourselves have been chosen out of the countless numbers of your associates to receive this honor. Just as we have banded together to present you this award, it is interesting to note that the five of us have been blessed and supported through your attentiveness and genuine direction throughout the years. We know that what we have to offer today, pales in comparison to the wonderful and kindhearted acts that you have given us. Knowing all that we know at this stage in our lives, if we were given the opportunity to choose anyone to be our parents, the choice would be simple, we would still choose you.

We are delighted to stand up and declare to the world what we know, and what you, Mom and Dad, already know. We love, respect, and treasure the support you have given us all our lives, and as time passes, and while our Lord delays His coming, we will continue to return the love you have given us.

Love,

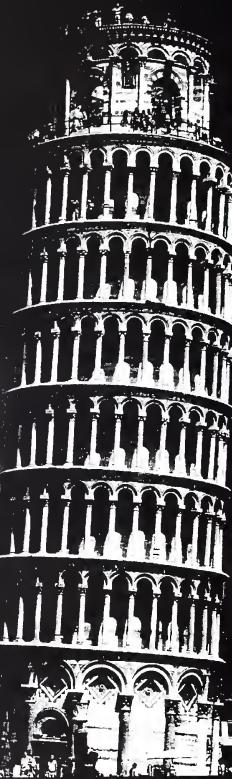

Michael, Michelle, Michele (Nikki), Michael Jr., Miguel

"Parents need to be impressed with their obligation to give to the world children having well-developed characters, children who will have moral power to resist temptation, and whose life will be an honor to God and a blessing to their fellowmen. Those who enter upon life with firm principles, will be prepared to stand unsullied amid the moral pollutions of this corrupt age. Let mothers improve every opportunity to educate their children for usefulness.

"The work of the mother is sacred and important. . . . We may safely say that the distinctive duties of woman are more sacred, more holy than those of man.

"The position of a woman in her family is more sacred than that of the king upon his throne. Her great work is to make her life an example such as she would wish her children to copy. And by precept as well as example, she is to store their minds with useful knowledge, and lead them to self-sacrificing labor for the good of others. . . . Every child who is trained aright, and who has . . . a meek and quiet spirit, will shine in the courts of the Lord."

Fundamentals of Christian Education, Ellen G. White, pp 139, 141, 142

CONGRATULATIONS & BEST WISHES

to

JAMES AND MABLE COX

You deserve this wonderful honor. Everyone who has ever had the pleasure of meeting and getting to know you will agree that your love for God and your family takes top priority in your life. To be recognized as Oakwood College Alumni parents of the year is just like having the icing on the cake. You have always been exceptional role models for your children. They didn't understand your rules as they were growing up. Now that they are parents, it is apparent to each of them that the rules, lessons and religious training that you established early in their lives was for their own good and the glory of the Lord.

May God continue to shine His light on you and yours.

Love

Alumnus of the Year

Elder Dreadsie J. Dixon

Elder Dreadsie James Dixon was born in Jackson, Mississippi on the eleventh day of September, in 1905. His earliest formal schooling was received at Jackson College, in the Children's Section in Jackson, Mississippi. Later he was promoted to the Jim Hill School for his Junior Highschool training. When his parents moved to Chicago, Illinois in 1919, he enrolled at the local highschool and played highschool baseball, and became a well-known Chicago highschool athlete.

It was Elder Dixon's aunt and cousin who introduced him to the Adventist faith, and he was baptized by Elder G. E. Peters, at the Prairie SDA Church, after attending a series of evangelistic meetings held by Elder G. E. Peters, in 1924.

A few years after his baptism in 1924, Professor J. A. Tucker, the Oakwood College principal, traveled to Chicago recruiting students, and knocked on his mother's door to invite him to become a student at Oakwood College. Elder Dixon in consultation with his mother and his aunt, enrolled at Oakwood Manual Training School in the year of 1926 to train to become a proclaimer of the everlasting gospel.

When Elder Dixon received his degree in 1928 from Oakwood Manual Training School, he enrolled at the Emmanuel Missionary College, in Berrien Springs, Michigan. Upon completion of his course work there, Elder Dixon entered Literature Ministry and later became a pastor in the Ohio Conference.

In the Thirties, he and Elder C. E. Moseley served together as evangelists in the state of Illinois. In the Forties, he served as the assistant to Elder G. E. Peters while evangelizing in the City of Cleveland, Ohio. It was his happy privilege to be associated with Elders V. Joseph, Thomas Allison, D. C. Batson, J. H. Williams, W. W. Fordham, J. H. Laurence, and received a wealth of experience from these great preachers.

Beginning in 1944 to the present, Elder Dixon has served the Adventist Church either as pastor, pastor's assistant, assistant pastor, district pastor in the following places: Youngstown, Ohio; Helena/Foresst City/Mariana, Arkansas; Lake Charles, Louisiana; Oklahoma City/Enid, Oklahoma; Ft. Worth, Texas; Tyler, Texas; Des Moines/Sioux City, Iowa; Charleston/Haiti/Sikeston, Missouri; and Huntsville, Alabama.

In all of these assignments, Elder Dixon, has actively engaged in the work of preparing young people for Christ's soon return. In doing so, he has encouraged Christian Education, finances his own children's Christian Education, given scholarships and financial aid to hundreds of young men and women. For 70 years he has made outstanding contributions to Alumni chapter programs and activities.

He is currently a member of the Oakwood College J.L. Moran Alumni Chapter and is a financially strong supporter of Oakwood College. His is the husband of the former Minneola Dabney Williams, Oakwood College's Archivist.

Their children are: Donald J. Dixon, Gwendolyn Dixon Myles, J. Philip Williams, Dwayne L. Williams, Denise M. Williams, Mark L. Williams.

Alumni of the Year

Rebecca Riley

Miss Rebecca Riley grew up in Beaufort, South Carolina, the first of nine children and the product of a "one teacher" rural school for grades one through five—and a consolidated city school during her junior and senior high school days. It was during these years she spent a great deal of time climbing trees, working in the fields, and attending farm animals. Is there any wonder why she became a walking "nature encyclopedia"? She graduated from high school salutatorian of her class and in recognition was awarded a full 4 year scholarship to South Carolina State College. However, before she could matriculate she became a Seventh-day Adventist Christian and decided to prepare herself for a life of service in a Christian school. She chose Oakwood College where she majored in Elementary Education graduating in the class of 1950. Despite the necessity of working her way through college in the Industrial Department, the college laundry and the college cafeteria, she was an excellent student and remained on the Dean's list each semester.

Ms. Riley began her professional career as a teacher at Manhattan Elementary School (later renamed R.T. Hudson Elementary School). Here she gave unstintingly for the children under her tutelage. She was a seamstress and used her talent (at no cost to the students) making graduation dresses for the graduating 8th graders.

She also made nature study one of her areas of expertise. She became the authority on matters of nature study for the entire Northeastern Junior Camp.

During her 40 tenure as a teacher at R.T. Hudson, Miss Riley assisted new teachers who needed encouragement and professional help in managing their classroom duties.

Through the years, she received trophies, plaques, and awards for her unselfish and dedicated service to children and her church. Her service included:

- 1) Instructor & counselor at N.E. Junior Camp
- 2) Service in tent efforts

- 3) Membership and service to the N.Y. Chapter of the Oakwood College Alumni Association.

Three years ago in 1996—she paid her alumni membership dues beyond the year 2000.

The Atlantic Union Conference and Northeastern Conference honored Ms. Riley and presented her with a "distinguished service" award at her testimonial retirement luncheon April 23, 1993.

Ms. Riley is a faithful member of the Mt. Vernon S.D.A. Church. She was the original sponsor and inaugurated the annual celebration of Ladies Day. She also served her church in the following capacities:

- ... Pathfinder Leader
- ... Sabbath School Teacher
- ... AYS Leader
- ... District Pathfinder Youth header for the Rockland-Westchester area.

Unselfishly and liberally, Miss Riley has paid school tuition for many worthy students at R.T. Hudson School, Westchester Area School and Oakwood College.

Public, College, and Alumni Association recognition for this conscientious, steadfast Christian heroine is long overdue.

Therefore, it is with distinct pleasure and delight the A.S. Rashford Chapter of the Oakwood College Alumni Association submits the name of Rebecca Riley as its Nominee for National Alumni of the year 2000 as she celebrates her 50th Year Reunion as a graduate of Oakwood College.

Certificate of Merit – Allegheny West

Owen R. Carryl, Ph.D

Owen R. Carryl was born in the beautiful country of Guyana (the only English-speaking country in South America), migrated to the United States over 20 years ago, and now lives with his family in Cincinnati, Ohio. At present, he holds the position of Section Head, in the Personal Health Care Division of the Procter and Gamble Company, one of the world's largest corporations. In his current assignment, Owen manages scientists and engineers who have Research & Development responsibility to provide technical support for P&G's Gastrointestinal brands (Pepto-Bismol & Metamucil) in North America, Europe, Asia, and Latin America.

Owen holds the distinction of being the first black promoted to Section Head from within the Health Care organization, and progressed to this management position 4½ years after joining Procter and Gamble. Owen attributes his meteoric rise within P&G to God's active involvement in his career, and a personal commitment to excellence.

His climb up the corporate ladder started at Oakwood College, a small Historically Black college in Huntsville, Alabama, where in 1980, he graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology. Owen worked in New York for 3 years, after which he moved to Washington DC, where he pursued graduate work in Medical Physiology at Howard University. After receiving his doctorate degree in 1989, he pursued post-doctoral training at the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research, where he focused his research on understanding the underlying mechanisms of Inflammatory Bowel Disease, a condition that affects millions of Americans.

When he is not doing P&G's business, Owen enjoys working on projects that benefit the community. He currently serves as an Elder at Shiloh SDA church, has served as Chairman of the Shiloh Preparatory School Board, and is a Trustee on the Boards of several community organizations including the Shiloh Housing for Seniors and the Mason Youth Basketball Association. In 1995, Owen was recognized for his work with Cincinnati's youth, and received the distinguished Cincinnati Black Achievers Award.

Dr. Carryl is a member of the American Physiological Society, and has authored several articles that have been published in various Peer-reviewed Medical Journals. He is married to the former Camille Rosemary Haynes, and is the father of three daughters, Nicole (who is a Freshman at Oakwood), Heather and Traci. In his spare time, Dr. Carryl enjoys playing golf, tennis, ping pong and white water rafting.

Faith Elizabeth Davis

It takes Faith to move a mountain... it takes Faith to believe in a dream. Faith Elizabeth Davis is originally from Philadelphia, PA. born to Nathaniel Davis and Mary Cole. She grew up in Durham, NC the fourth of five girls.

In 1989 Faith graduated from Durham High School as an honor graduate. While in high school Faith served as Senior Class President and upon graduation received several awards for leadership and academic honors.

After high school Faith attended Southern College, but later transferred to Oakwood College. She is a firm believer in Christian Education, especially the Oakwood experience.

It was at Oakwood where she was inspired to excel beyond her fondest dreams. She was active in many organizations at Oakwood which aided her in developing leadership skills. In 1995 Faith graduated Cum Laude from Oakwood College with a B.A. in communications and a Minor in Psychology.

Faith is very active in many leadership rolls in her church in Durham, NC, and an active member of the Durham Chapter of Oakwood College Alumni Association where she serves as Vice-President.

Faith did graduate work at the University of Cincinnati on a full-tuition Scholarship and receive a Master Degree in Social Work.

Professionally, Faith is a Social Worker at the Department of Social Services in Durham, NC, where she serves as a Child Protective Services Investigator, and as an Adult Home Specialist. She also works part-time as a High Risk Intervention Family Social Worker.

To live, serve, love and witness about God's mighty power is Faith mission in life—for truly Deliverance is in your praise.

Congratulations and Best Wishes to Our Own

Elizabeth Shelton Rice

Elizabeth Shelton Rice, daughter to the late Benjamin and Mattie Lawhorn Shelton, was born on December 17, 1915, in Cotton Plant, Arkansas. She received her elementary education at Cotton Plant Academy and is a graduate of Manassa High School in Memphis, Tennessee. She was the first and oldest student to enroll in Community College in Denver, Colorado, when it opened its doors in the 60's where she was under the tutelage of the former Congresswoman Patricia Schroeder. Her course of studies included Business Communication and Real Estate. She received a certificate of completion in business from the DeKalb Technical Institute in Atlanta, Georgia.

From 1945 to 1979, Mrs. Rice held numerous positions and offices in Beth Haven, Park Hill and Community SDA churches in the Denver area. She was Bible instructor, Sabbath School superintendent, clerk, youth leader, investment leader, church building leader and a master guide. For seventeen years she served on the school board at Mile High Academy in Denver, Colorado and was the first African American female to serve on the Executive Committee. She was also the first woman of Central States Conference to serve on the Conference Committee and the first black woman to serve on the MidAmerica Union Committee. Because of her love for people, she was also connected with and served on the executive board of the Adams County Mental Health Center for ten years and received many awards for her loyalty, dedication and contributions. Mrs. Rice, by profession, was a realtor and also owned a real estate company. She was rated one of the top black realtors for five years and was instrumental in integrating the residential areas in Denver during the turbulent 60's.

Early in 1980, Mrs. Rice moved to Atlanta, Georgia, where she joined the Boulevard Drive SDA Church. She became very active in missionary services. The South Atlantic Conference hired her as a Bible instructor during the eighties. As a result of her spiritual dedication to soul winning for Christ, many souls have been added to the church. Mrs. Rice also became the spiritual advisor for the organizers of the Feed the Hungry Program, and she is presently a member of the Black Concerned Clergy Association in Atlanta, Georgia.

In 1997, Mrs. Rice moved to Huntsville, Alabama, and once again became active in the church and local community. She is the president of the Retired Older Seventh day Adventist (ROSDA), chairperson for the enrollment for the J.L. Moran Alumni Association, a member of the Democratic Women of Huntsville and holds membership in various local civic organizations. Mrs. Rice is an active Bible instructor for many of the conference and unions throughout the United States and believes, because of her Bible work, she has been allowed so many great accomplishments.

Mrs. Rice is affectionately called "Mother Rice" to many. Five of her children have attended Oakwood College and one attended Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska. One son and grandchild have graduated from Oakwood College. She is an avid walker who averages 56 miles a week and begins her day, before the sun rises, with prayer and Bible study. She attributes her vitality and longevity to her close relationship with God through prayer.

"The path of the righteous man is beset on all sides by the inequities of the selfish and the tyranny of evil men. Blessed is he who, in the name of charity and good will, shepherds the weak through the valley of darkness, for he is truly his brother's keeper and the finder of lost children. And I will strike down upon thee with great vengeance and furious anger those who attempt to poison and destroy my bothers. And you will know my name is the Lord when I lay my vengeance upon you."

Certificate of Merit – Southwest Region Conference

Pamela Virginia Herbert-Johnson

Wise words from a song that says "only what you do for Christ will last." Many achievements by many people have done some great things for mankind. But the things that hold the greatest value have been, what was done for the glory of God. Our honoree, Pamela V. Herbert-Johnson, has attempted in her life to do whatever benefits God's program.

Our honoree is a resident of Kenner, LA. She is a member of the Ephesus SDA Church in New Orleans, LA, where she has been active in Women's Ministry, Sabbath School teacher, AYS assistant, Vacation Bible School, Ladies Choir and wherever else she is needed.

At present, Ms. Johnson is known as "Miss Pam" of WYLD 940's Children Corner, the only live radio program for children and youth in South Louisiana. She is producer, hostess and story teller of the show providing information on Black history, Bible trivia, giving out awards and special gifts to children. This show is a Saturday weekly show.

Ms. Johnson is the fourth of five siblings of the late John Earle and Lenora Sears Herbert. It was an Adventist home where Christian education was paramount, all siblings attended Adventist schools. Pamela is a graduate of Oakwood College class of 1972 with a bachelor degree in Psychology and Sociology. Also she is the recipient of several professional certificates and has done advanced studies in guidance and counseling.

Pamela's professional work experience includes 20 yrs. in counseling and teaching. Her leadership in the community includes motivational speaking, special events planning and participating in children's programs. She was the 1999 recipient of the Humanity Award given by the New Orleans/Jefferson Parish Martin Luther King chapters.

Over the years Pamela Johnson has been a strong supporter of the local association by working in any capacity to help keep the spirit and legacy of Oakwood before the people in her area. She consistently encourages young people to attend Oakwood College and get "the O.C. experience."

Ms. Johnson is an avid reader and enjoys shopping for antiques. She is a promoter of young people and always encourages them to do their best and put God first in their lives and everything else will fall in place. Her son Shauwnn, is also a graduate of Oakwood College. Ms. Johnson is also grateful for the Oakwood College experience which has enhanced her abilities to serve others with a greater purpose. Her personal theology as well as her drive is "that all that I have been, all that I am and all that I will be is all for the glory of God."

Pamela Herbert Johnson

We are praying for you!

Frances Goodine

Frances Goodine spent her early years at the Ephesus Seventh-day Adventist Church. She was an active person and found it easy and inviting to become involved in church activities. Frances established a time to participate as an usher, M.V. Secretary, SS Superintendent, Collegiate and Cantata Choir member, Medical Corp. Member, and in numerous other church related activities.

Frances Goodine had the distinguished pleasure of graduating from Oakwood College in the second class of the newly formed four-year Senior College, in May of 1946. Immediately she obtained employment at the Berean Junior Academy, Houston, Texas, where she taught the upper grades for three years. She returned to New York and enrolled in the Bellevue School of Nursing. Upon graduation, she worked at Bellevue in the Chest Surgery and Chest Medicines Department.

Because she had an insatiable appetite for developing her medical talents, Frances became an employee of the New York City Department of Health. She matriculated in the New York University School of Education to qualify herself for the degree of PHN. In June of 1961, Frances received her M.A. Degree in PH Nursing Education. Frances worked in the New York City Department of Health as an RN, PHN, and SPHN. Frances enjoyed three years as Assistant Director of Nursing at the Bronx Municipal Hospital in the Ambulatory Care Department. She retired in the title of Acting Executive, PHN.

In spite of her assiduous program, Frances found time for extra professional pursuits. She was a member of Dr. Edmound Goode's medical team during Camp Meetings. She assisted Drs. Wayne McFarland and Edmound Goode, along with the American Cancer Society, in conducting a survey of the Adventists in the Atlantic Union Conference Territory. It goes without saying that she was active in the ASRC of the OC Alumni Association. Also a life member of A. Samuel Rashford Alumni Association. In addition to serving on various committees, she encouraged the Chapter to initiate the "Century Membership." She was asked to assist in obtaining names and personal data of all former Oakwood students residing in the Northeastern Conference area and to aid in the Accreditation Process of the college. This was a colossal task, but with the help of other key Church Members the assignment was executed.

Frances has enjoyed her chosen profession. She has served with dignity and strength. Now that she is retired, she still finds the time to volunteer her services in between her traveling excursions. She gives God the credit for the encomium that has been bestowed on her.

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 1950!!!

CELEBRATING OUR GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

The year was 1946. We were teenagers then, and members of the Freshman Class at OAKWOOD COLLEGE.

Harry Truman was President of the United States.

A gallon of milk cost 71 cents, less than a quart of milk costs today.

A loaf of bread was 11 cents, and gas was only 18 cents a gallon.

A new automobile was only $1,500.00.

A new house would set you back $12,700.00

The average family income was only $2,400.00 a year

Those were the "GOOD OLD DAYS" !!!

OAKWOOD COLLGE WAS CELEBRATING HER GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY.

People were singing, Zip-a-dee-doo-dah...

Today we can sing, Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow.

Thank you Lord for guiding and protecting us these many years.

I say

CONGRATULATIONS!

Faith Elizabeth Davis

Dear Sister,

You were the baby in the family for eleven years. Then I came along, dancing and singing my own song. Since you were older, I thought you would never understand what I had to face. I looked at your age and intelligence and I never knew what you could see in me. You took time with me and really comforted me. With your help and guidance to me I learned to live in this world and to give to others. When I would call you, you were always willing to talk to me. Sometimes I looked at you and then I saw that you were everything I wished to become. You taught me that within me lies happiness, and you showed me that a sister's love is full of peace and faithfulness. I think of you, when times are rough, because I've seen you handle situations that are awfully tough. When I talk to you, I get this joy inside. Because of you I don't have to hide. You are my sister, a basket of love. You are my friend sent from heaven above. You are my inspiration never leaving me without determination. Thank you for loving me these seventeen years. When it was hard for me to love myself, I knew you loved me.

From your little sister,
Carley Cole

School Song

To Thee Our Dear Oakwood

Written by O. B. Edwards

Chorus

To thee, our dear Oakwood,
To thee we shall ever sing.
For decades thou has stood;
Thy name shall ever ring.
Here we've spent our happy days,
So we love to sing thy praise,
And wherever we may be
We'll always be true to thee,
Our worthy dear old O.C.

One

Our dear Oakwood within whose vales
Thy standards will not fail;
Our hearts are filled with wondrous cheer
When thoughts of thee draw near.
We love thy pines, thy elms, thy oaks
And campus always green.
The many flowers and distant mounts,
Form one impressive scene.

Two

From states afar and isles of sea
Thy students come to thee,
And fain do linger in thy halls
Enlightened truthfully.
From nature's scenes they ever learn
And study from the soil;
Till many more thy works discern.
We'll pray for thee and toil.

Three

As happy birds come in the spring
And sing not for their pay,
Rich, natural melodies they bring,
Cheering throughout the day.
We too will serve thee faithfully
In all we do and say.
We hope in God, we trust in thee;
True and loyal we'll be.
